TRIP OVERVIEW

MAKE AN IMPACT IN PALAWAN

Welcome to a purposeful journey where volunteering meets adventure!

Join us in Palawan City, Philippines, as we work hand-in-hand with a local village to revamp a community school. This week-long project blends hands-on work with cultural immersion, all set in one of the most breathtaking islands in the world.

PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS

- Painting classroom walls with vibrant, inspiring colors
- Renovation and basic repairs to improve the learning environment
- Flooring and cleanup tasks to restore safe and functional spaces
- Additional volunteering activities in collaboration with the community

DURATION

7 Days

TRIP PRICE

$1190 , Deposit $300

ABOUT PHILIPPINES

CURRENCY

The local currency is Philippine Peso (PHP). 1USD \approx 55–60 PHP (check current rate before travel).

Credit cards are accepted in cities, but we recommend having cash for local spots.

WEATHER

Average temp: 25–30°C. Lightweight clothing and a rain jacket are ideal.

CUISINE

You'll enjoy a variety of delicious local dishes like adobo, sinigang, pancit, and tropical fruits.

Vegetarian options are available upon request, and we're mindful of dietary needs.

GEOGRAPHY

Palawan is often called the “Last Frontier” of the Philippines, home to crystal-clear waters, lush forests, and unique biodiversity.

Our base, Puerto Princesa, is a peaceful city with access to natural wonders and authentic culture.

LANGUAGE

Filipino and English are both widely spoken. Locals are friendly and always happy to help you practice a few Tagalog phrases!
